Messrs Chapman Bros

Gentlemen

Would you care to purchase at $30— net cash a very fine Loeri Ofantii Tetradrachm. I bought the coin from R. H. Smith some 6 or 7 yrs ago. and allowed him some where in the neighborhood of $60.00 so I judge it at $30.00 to be cheap for a dealer to invest in. the coin is in fine order. But quite dark in color from being laid away in tissue paper. Have you a cash buyer for a New Ireland Helmet Mark. it must net me $22.50. it is a beauty and well worth $50.00 or 60.00. Sturgis would buy it. But he is not making any additions to his collection at present. in any thing that adds duplicates. and he already has some thing like 20 marks.

If you know any very wealthy people among your customers you might see if they would care to secure a very fine and large Sandwich Island Mano or Feather Monttle. 4ft deep. and 12 ft Circumfrence or lower edge. once the property of King Kamehameha. it has been appraised at $30.000 00. Can sell for half that and allow a .10% Comi. it is better than the one in Washington that is valued at one 100.000 — It can be seen in my house by appointment or I would bring it on. if expenses were paid. It is for to risky to trust to valuable an article by Express.

Yours truly

M. F. Savage

Have a Hollow base Frog Pipe. found in Green Co. Ill. can sell for $22.50 net. it cost late owner $35.00.

Gentlemen

Your favor of 10th at hand.
which I fail to understand. you remark.
"as you did not accept the robe we withdrew it"
I am sure I did my part. I recd a postal in which you declined certain things offered.
and incidentally mentioned having the cloak or robe at $20— inside of an hour after receipt of card, my answer was mailed. for you to send on approval. Surely you could not expect me to purchase outright, an article I had never seen, and only been notified of its existence. by a ½ line mention on a postal card. I would like to see the Cloak or robe any way. no matter what your new price may be. for I wish to compair it with the one in my possession
for I am collecting data. on Feather work for The National Museum. so it is quite important that I should see all known specimens. especially if your clock is from the South Sea Islands. if you are afraid to send it on Approval give me a description and crude drawing, with dimensions and if important enough I will come in to see it. What is the price now, that Mr S.H. Chapman has appraised it.

But if you can let me see it, you will confer a favor on yours very truly

Dear Sirs

I have given your clock very careful examination, and offer for it $70.00 Cash. which is 3½ times your original price and which I think, in its present condition, much more than its fair value.

The clock that I have is as you must understand still the property of its original owner. who can trace its history back to Royalty, its accuracy, and its astounding value first and last in theirs. But if put at auction I have every doubt of its bring over $150— and it is almost impossible to state. While yours is without history, and very badly damaged. so I feel confident in making you this offer of $70— that I am offering its full value. and more than you could possibly realize at auction— on present conditions.

I have used your address [illegible] for it, if I can make use of it.
